your breath Even though I know this will hurt When I'm sleeping through the night When I fall asleep to you I'm just glad he can't feel my arms Pulling on him He can't feel the snare drums We could feel fine, don't know why Started a fight that we didn't know So I'm looking at you Looking at all that I miss When we were so in love When we started a family Yeah we had a love for sure But it's gone now With the cold wall, I'll lay there In a room of my own He don't know how to Kill all the things you make me feel I don't know how to Kill all the things you make me feel There's
